STEIN ERIKSEN LODGE AND SPA MAINTAIN 5-STAR RATINGS IN 2021 FORBES TRAVEL GUIDE

PARK CITY, Utah (September 21, 2020) – In the Forbes Travel Guide sneak peek of the 2021 Star Ratings, Stein Eriksen Lodge and The Spa at Stein Eriksen Lodge again received the prominent Forbes Travel Guide Five-Star award. With less than 300 hotels and only 90 spas that hold the coveted 5-star rating worldwide, these two distinguished Stein Collection entities have held the recognition since 2008 for the hotel and 2012 for the spa.

“We’re incredibly proud to have earned Forbes Travel Guide ratings again this year, and we are honored to be among such notable properties across the industry,” said Russ Olsen, CEO of Stein Collection. “Thanks in large part to our talented, professional staff who work tirelessly for each and every one of our guests and continue to provide an exceptional Stein Collection experience for every person who walks through our doors.”

Glitretind Restaurant at Stein Eriksen Lodge and The Chateaux Deer Valley hotel also again earned the Forbes Travel Guide Four-Star award.

Forbes Travel Guide, the world-renowned expert in genuine Five-Star service, announced its 2020 Star Awards in February. While the full list of 2021 award winners will be revealed in 2021, this early announcement of select award winners aims to provide getaway inspiration as travel continues to pick up. The early winners for 2021 were inspected prior to COVID-19 closures.

Additional accomplishments and rankings for Stein Collection properties include Stein Eriksen Lodge being recognized by World Ski Awards as the 2019 US Best Ski Hotel, Forbes Travel Guide 2018 Most Luxurious Hotels, Condé Nast Traveler 2018 Readers' Choice Awards, Travel + Leisure 2018 Best Resorts in the West, and U.S. News & World Report 2018 Best Utah Hotels. Glitretind Restaurant at Stein Eriksen Lodge was recognized again by DiRONA 2019 Award of Excellence, Wine Spectator 2019 Best of Award of Excellence, and Wine Enthusiast 2019 America's 100 Best Wine Restaurants. The Chateaux Deer Valley ranked among U. S. News & World Report for 2018 Best Park City Hotels. And, Cena Ristorante at The Chateaux Deer Valley was again recognized by Wine Spectator 2019 Award of Excellence.
